

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

PREFACE.

FOR some long time past it has been widely felt that a reduction in the cost of Classical Works used in schools generally, and more especially in those intended for boys of the middle classes, is at once desirable and not difficult of accomplishment. For the most part only portions of authors are read in the earlier stages of education, and a pupil is taken from one work to another in each successive half-year or term; so that a book needlessly large and proportionably expensive is laid aside after a short and but partial use.

In order, therefore, to meet what is certainly a want, Portions of the Classical Writers usually read in Schools are now being issued under the title of GRAMMAR SCHOOL TEXTS; while, at the request of various Masters, it has been determined to add to the series some portions of the Greek Testament.

Each TEXT is provided with a VOCABULARY of the words occurring in it. In every instance—with the exception of Eutropius and Æsop—the origin of a word, when known, is stated at the commencement of the article treating of it, if connected with another

Latin, or Greek, word; at the end of it, if derived from any other source. Further still, the primary or etymological meaning is always given, within inverted commas, in Roman type, and so much also of each word's history as is needful to bring down its chain of meanings to the especial force, or forces, attaching to it in the particular "Text." In the Vocabularies, however, to Eutropius and Æsop—which are essentially books for beginners—the origin is given of those words alone which are formed from other Latin or Greek words, respectively.

Moreover, as an acquaintance with the principles of GRAMMAR, as well as with ETYMOLOGY, is necessary to the unders anding of a language, such points of construction as seem to require elucidation are concisely explained under the proper articles, or a reference is simply made to that rule in the Public Schools Latin Primer, or in Parry's Elementary Greek Grammar, which meets the particular difficulty. It occasionally happens, however, that more information is needed than can be gathered from the above-named works. When such is the case, whatever is requisite is supplied, in substance, from Jelf's Greek Grammar, Winer's Grammar of New Testament Greek, or the Latin Grammars of Zumpt and Madvig.

The first consists of Acheans and Arcadians, under ten generals; the second of Cheirisophus's division; the third of the men under Xenophon.

CHAPTER III.

The Arcadian division, arriving at Calpē, attacks some Thracian villages.—The Thracians gather their forces, and surrounding their invaders, who post themselves on a hill, inflict great injury upon them and reduce them to extremities.—Xenophon is informed of their situation.—He proceeds to their rescue.—The Thracians alarmed at his approach decamp in the night —Reaching the place where the Arcadians had been hemmed in, Xenophon finds that they had departed.—Both divisions meet at Calpē, where Cheirisophus had previously arrived.

CHAPTER IV.

Situation and description of Calpë.—The Greeks encamp on the seashore.—They bury those, who had fallen by the Thracians, in as honourable a manner as they are able.—It is decreed that every proposition for dividing the army shall henceforth constitute a capital offence.—Death of Cheirisophus.—Great distress from failure of supplies.—Xenophon is blamed.—He is called to lead out the army on an expedition, but refuses as long as the omens are unfavourable.—Neon puts himself at the head of about 2000 men, who, scattering themselves in quest of plunder, are attacked by the cavalry of Pharnabarus, who kill 500 of them.—The rest take refuge on a mountain.—Xenophon comes to their rescue, and takes them off to the camp.—The Bithynians come in the evening by stealth to surprise them.

 ΤΑΥΤΗΝ μεν οὖν τὴν ἡμέραν αὐτοῦ ηὐλίζοντο ἐπὶ τοῦ αἰγιαλοῦ πρὸς τῷ λιμένι.

CHAPTER V.

Warned by their late perils, the Greeks fortify their camp.—The auspices being favourable, Xenophon leads forth a part of the army, leaving Neon and his men behind.—Some of these follow the others.—The Greeks find and bury the slain.—The enemy appear in sight on some high grounds.—As they advance against them, the Greeks come to a halt at a ravine.—At the advice of Xenophon they cross it.—The enemy are completely routed.

CHAPTER VI.

Bithynia is plundered.—Cleander, the Spartan Harmost, arrives with two triremes, but without transports.—Dexippus appears again, and his conduct is nearly productive of a most serious quarrel between Cleander and the army.—No harm, however, results beyond a temporary misunderstanding.—The command is offered to Cleander.—The auspices do not allow him to accept it.—Under its former generals the army passes through Bithynia and arrives at Chrysopolis.

1. ΈΝΤΕΥΘΕΝ οἱ μὲν πολέμιοι εἰχον ἀμφὶ τὰ ἑαυτῶν καὶ ἀπήγοντο καὶ τοὺς οἰκέτας καὶ τὰ χρήματα, ὅποι ἐδύναντο προσωτάτω· οἱ δὲ Ἦληνες προσέμενον μὲν Κλἐανδρον καὶ τὰς τριήρεις καὶ τὰ πλοῖα ὡς ἤξοντα· ἐξιόντες δὲ ἐκάστης ἡμέρας σὺν τοῖς ὑποζυγίοις καὶ τοῖς ἀνδραπόδοις ἐφέροντο ἀδεῶς ἤδη πυροὺς, κριθὰς, οἶνον, ὅσπρια, μελίνας, σῦκα· πάντα γὰρ εἰχεν ἡ χώρα, πλὴν ἐλαίου. 2. Kaì έν τούτφ Κλέανδρος άφικνεῖται δύο τριήρεις έχων πλοίον δ' οὐδέν. Έτύγχανε δὲ τὸ στράτευμα έξω δυ, ὅτε ἀφίκετο, καὶ ἐπὶ λείαν τινές οιγόμενοι άλλοι άλλη είς τὸ όρος είλήφεσαν πρόβατα πολλά δκνούντες δε μη άφαιρεθείεν, τῷ Δεξίππω λέγουσιν (δς ἀπέδρα τὴν πεντηκόντορον έχων έκ Τραπεζοῦντος), καλ κελεύουσι διασώσαντα αὐτοῖς τὰ πρόβατα, τὰ μέν αὐτὸν λαβείν, τὰ δὲ σφίσιν αὐτοίς ἀποδοίναι.

'Ο δὲ Κλέανδρος, ὑπὸ τοῦ Δεξίππου τε ἀνερεθιζόμενος καὶ αὐτὸς ἀχθεσθεὶς ὅτι ἐφοβήθη, ἀποπλεύσεσθαι ἔφη καὶ κηρύξειν μηδεμίαν πόλιν δέχεσθαι αὐτοὺς, ὡς πολεμίους.
